Kansas-based artist Kris Kuksi's new exhibition, "Hallucinatory Enhancements," opens on October 12, 6 to 8 p.m., at Joshua Liner Gallery (540 West 28th Street) and is up until November 11. The title refers to the way we perceive the work, which Kuski equates to a "hallucinatory journey." The show coincides with the release of a 192-page monograph, "Conquest," published by Rizzoli.
